THE SKINNY . . . The 2000 NCAA Division II Men's and Women's Basketball Championship West Regionals take place this week - the men's competition at Seattle Pacific and the women's at CAL POLY POMONA. Three CCAA squads: league champion CAL STATE, SAN BERNARDINO, UC DAVIS and CAL STATE L.A. will participate in Seattle, while women's conference champ Pomona is the lone CCAA representative in the national showcase for the first time since 1994. Special CCAA News Updates for both competitions containing schedules and detailed information is available on the CCAA World Wide Web site (<http://www.goccaa.org>).

The spring seasons are in full gear, however, with the official beginning of the track & field season commencing last Wednesday. This week the UC schools, Davis and Riverside, host their regional rivals in a pair of multi-team meets featuring some of the best athletes the CCAA has to offer. Originally scheduled for SAN FRANCISCO STATE, the five-way meet at Davis was moved to Aggie country because of the current renovation of SFSU's Cox Stadium.

A key series in baseball this weekend looks to pit defending national champion CHICO STATE at UC RIVERSIDE. Riverside is ineligible for any postseason opportunities, but its games against all CCAA squads affect CCAA records, which determine the four participants for the league tournament to be held the second week of May. Chico is currently 9-0 and ranked No. 1 nationally.

In softball, No. 24 CAL STATE BAKERSFIELD, fresh off a non-league win over No. 17 UC DAVIS at a Texas tournament, takes on the Aggies in Davis on Saturday, March 11. The Roadrunners must tangle with a fierce Chico State squad first, however, as the two teams meet in Chico on Friday, March 10 at 1:30 p.m.

CCAA NEWS AND NOTES . . . SAN FRANCISCO STATE student and former Gator pole vaulter John Marheineke won $10,000 by sinking a halfcourt basket on Fan Appreciation Night during SFSU's final home basketball game of the season on February 26. Marheineke, a 22-year-old kinesiology major hit nothing but net in a contest sponsored by CollegeClub.com. Following his feat, Marheineke was a guest on a local sports television show and his shot has been aired numerous times on the San Francisco NBC affiliate . . . GRAND CANYON President and current baseball coach Gil Stafford was officially inaugurated as the President of GCU on Thursday, February 24. The unique dual-position held by Dr. Stafford is being featured in this month's edition of ESPN The Magazine, scheduled to hit the newsstands on Wednesday, March 8 . . . GCU women's basketball senior Veronica Gonzales finished her career as the all-time leading scorer in GCU history with 789 points in just two years with the 'Lopes . . . Karen L. Miller, Director of Athletics at Cal Poly Pomona for 18 years, will finish her tenure this month. The Broncos have won two CCAA Championships and placed second nationally in women's soccer during her final academic year as Athletics Director . . . Chico State baseball pitcher John-Eric Hernandez, the Most Outstanding Player of the 1999 Division II Finals, won his 34th career game at Chico in a 19-6 win at Cal State, San Bernardino last week. The 34th victory at Chico State breaks the all-time record of 33 that has stood for 50 years.
